

The Best Food for Infants

Nature planned that infants should have only milk for at least the first year of life. But thin milk, skimmed milk, will not nourish. It's the milk that is rich in cream, or fat, that does the work. This is because fat is positively necessary for the growing body.

Scott's Emulsion

contains the best fat, in the form of Cod-Liver Oil, for all delicate children.

They thrive greatly under its use. Soon they weigh more, eat more, play better and look better. It's just the right addition to their regular food. The hypophosphites of lime and soda in it are necessary to the growth and formation of bone and teeth.

Scott's Emulsion is sold by all druggists and grocers. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York.

The College Bone Man.

Two young men who must have been medical students boarded an Arizona car late one night with a fully articulated skeleton. Each had one arm linked with that of the skeleton, whose bones rattled grievously as they walked to the forward end of the car and gravely seated themselves with their inanimate companion between them. Between the grinning teeth of the skeleton was a cigarette, and a derby hat adorned its shining skull. The car was rather crowded, and the other passengers, most of whom were men, gazed in open mouthed astonishment at the strange spectacle. The two young fellows, however, pretended to be unconscious of their surroundings and held such converse with the skeleton as "Too bad you didn't wear your mackintosh, Bill; I'm afraid you'll catch cold," or, "Say, Bill, better throw away your cigarette or the conductor will put you off."

When the conductor came through for the fares, one of the young men handed him 15 cents, and he rang up three fares without a word of comment. At Sixteenth street a young girl entered the car and looked around for a seat. "Here, Bill," exclaimed one of the students, "where's your gallantry? Get up and give the lady a seat." Then he yanked the skeleton out of its place and set it on his knees. The girl gave one scream, fled to the back platform and insisted that the conductor stop the car and put her off. "Gee, Bill," remarked the student, gazing reproachfully into the skeleton's face. "You've deteriorated. You used to be quite a lady's man." Then everybody laughed. —Philadelphia Record.

Miss Breezy—I see she's married again.

Miss Lakeside—Yes; this is her seventh, and I don't think she cares very much for him.

Miss Breezy—No?

Miss Lakeside—No. I was at the engraver's today when she left her order for her new visiting cards. She only ordered 50.—Philadelphia Press.

It is estimated that at any given time, in Germany alone, 1,200,000 persons are afflicted with consumption and 1,200,000 in America have it at all times. Professor Hirsch pronounces it emphatically a disease of all times, all countries and all races.

A. R. De Flament, editor of the Journal, Doylestown, Ohio, suffered for a number of years from rheumatism in his right shoulder and side. He says: "My right arm at times was entirely useless. I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and was surprised to receive relief almost immediately. The Pain Balm has been a constant companion of mine ever since and it never fails." THE CAROLINA REPUBLICANS

State Convention In Session At Columbia, S. C., March 20.

COLUMBIA, S. C., March 20.—The Republican state convention is in session here. It is composed of about 300 negroes and a dozen white men. All of the latter are federal officeholders or want to be. The committee on contested elections has been in session hearing appeals from several counties. The negroes under "Rev." June M. Ware, contesting seats allowed by the machine under the rule of E. A. Webster, revenue collector, and J. F. Eason, postmaster in this city.

There will be a state ticket put out as a mere formality in order to get federal patronage if the Republicans win.

DEWEY WARMLY GREETED.

Savannah Extends a Cordial Welcome to Hero of Manila.

SAVANNAH, March 20.—It looked for a short time that the entertainment of Admiral and Mrs. Dewey was to be marred by bad weather. The day began cloudy and with rain, but at noon the sun came out. The morning drive had to be suspended with, but at 12 o'clock the admiral, with a committee of citizens, boarded the revenue tug Hannon for a trip down the river.

The city and vessels in the harbor were gay with bunting.

Mrs. Dewey is using entertained by a lady committee. There will be a public reception at the DeSoto hotel.

An Odd Law.

To punish a man for nonpayment of a certain tax by forbidding him to enter a restaurant is a rather singular act of government, yet in the canton of Bern such a law is in effect. Every man in Switzerland must serve in the Swiss army if he be physically capable, and if he be not physically capable he must pay what is called the military exemption tax. In the canton of Bern a rigidly enforced law is in effect which prohibits a person who has not paid this tax from entering any of the various beer gardens and saloons until the tax is paid.

This law is called the "Wirtshausverbot." The government says that if a man has money to spend for coffee, beer or liquors he must also have money enough with which to pay his debt to the state. At intervals one may read in the local official papers the list of names of those who must stay away from the gardens. The law cannot prohibit a person from obtaining liquor through the intervention or help of a friend, but the privilege of dropping into a favorite resort and hobnobbing with friends—a custom which is dear to every Swiss—must be foregone.

The law is effective for several reasons. The military exemption tax is small—it is generally paid—and the ordinary peasant does not like to see his name publicly printed.—Chicago Record.

WINE OF CARDUI

A LITTLE DOES MUCH.

Boone, Iowa, Dec. 14.
No tongue can tell what I have endured in the past ten years with my monthly sickness. While suffering untold agony, a friend called and recommended Wine of Cardui. I sent for a bottle, and Oh! what relief. After the first dose I began to feel better and have had no pain since.

MRS. GRACE LAMPHIER.

McFEE'S
Wine of Cardui

Wine of Cardui not only cures but it acts AT ONCE. Here is a case of ten years' standing, and yet one single dose made the sufferer feel better, and stopped the pain. The Wine goes straight to the seat of the trouble. It acts directly upon the menstrual and genital organs. Its action is not violent, and it does not force a result. It simply gives Nature that little assistance that the sufferer's system lacks. A single disorder in the feminine organs spreads many disorders all over the body, and when the Wine cures the source, all the other ills vanish as a matter of course. A woman can be her own physician and cure herself at home. Local examinations are largely things of the past—the obnoxious custom is no longer necessary. Wine of Cardui is the only perfectly safe and sure vegetable Wine made to-day for the cure of "female troubles."
